

MY WEEK in DOWNTOWN

Johnnie Walker
Executive Director of the Memphis &
Shelby County
Music Commission

Thursday... Walked from City Hall to Gator Printing to pick up hot pink tickets for the Annual Emissaries of Memphis Music Power Luncheon. Stopped by Bach's Lunch to get my favorite panini then went to Memphis Music Legal Clinic at the Renaissance Business Center on Beale Street.

Friday... Day started early at Starbuck's at the Westin Hotel with a business meeting then met colleagues at the Little Tea Shop for lunch—the salmon salad is my favorite.

Saturday... Power walked along the Mississippi River and Tom Lee Park; strolled by Energy Fitness to preview the Fat Blast Class that's scheduled as part of the 2010 Musicians Health Challenge.

Sunday... Enjoyed fresh coffee on the balcony of my home near Tennessee Street.

Monday... Had breakfast at the Blue Plate Café with a Chicago music promoter and ended the day at the Hard Rock Café for Memphis Music Monday, a Memphis music showcase celebrating 15 months of featuring Memphis talent!

Tuesday... Warner Brothers colleague Motti Shulmon flew in from LA and met me for lunch at the Peabody Hotel to talk about Memphis music and endless possibilities.

Wednesday... Had a strategy session with Optimum Studios to edit TV footage for Memphis Music Revealed.
